It's one of two books of the Bible chiefly about the experiences of women and bearing the name of a woman. It is a story with unique application to the issues of our time. Far more than a story about friendship, it explores experiences unique to women throughout history, issues related to acceptance of "outsiders" and "immigrants" and how God powerfully uses persons from unexpected backgrounds and situations in exceptional ways to fulfil his purposes. Please join us for an interesting discussion and perhaps new perspectives. All are welcome to attend this Wednesday Bible study, at 10:00 a.m., in person in Fellowship Hall at Central or via ZOOM Meetings:

Calling all volunteers for Power Read & Sewing mission with First Arabic

Since the 1980s, Central has been involved in tutoring children in Des Moines. During this time, the program has served several groups of children, from The Boys and Girls Club to the Homes of Oakridge.

More recently, our Church has been working with our friends at First Arabic Presbyterian Church. Our Tuesday night program now benefits both children and their mothers. The tutoring program has become Power Read, a mentoring program, partnering with Everybody Wins! Iowa. Most recently we have added a sewing program for the mothers and offered nursery care for small children, along with a meal for everyone.

To be able to continue this mission, we need the help of volunteers. How can you help?

- Meal Volunteers – To help shop, cook and serve our Tuesday night weekly meal at 5:00–7:00 p.m.

Volunteer Appreciation

Join the Greater Des Moines Habitat for Humanity as they celebrate incredible volunteers and express their gratitude for all that YOU did in 2020 and 2021 for Central Presbyterian Church’s Faith builds and the May 22 Panel Build!

Central volunteers are invited to this annual event on Tuesday, August 3, at the newly renovated Riverview Park & Amphitheater, 710 Corning Ave, Des Moines. Festivities will begin at 5:00 p.m. with a brief presentation and awards ceremony at 6:15 p.m.

Enjoy live jazz, funk and soul music all night from local band, The Travelers, as well as games, food, goodies and fun! And you won’t want to miss it when one of the Habitat for Humanity Construction Managers faces the dunk tank later in the evening.

Come when you can and stay for as long as you’d like. You may register yourself and up to 4 guests through the HFH registration link. RSVP today!

Come one, come all for this FREE night of fun. We can’t wait to see you there!

- 3. Nursery Volunteers – To be one of two, “on-call” nursery volunteers, assisting only if one of the regular nursery staff is unable to work on a Tuesday evening. You will always be with another staff member.

The future of Central’s Power Read and sewing program depends on volunteers. If you feel God is calling you, contact the Church office or Laura Bandstra at 515-279-5230.

CROSS's 29th annual School Supply Distribution

It is hard to believe but teachers and students around the city are already looking forward to the back-to-school season. Central’s Board of Deacons along with CROSS Outreach will continue to help families in need prepare for the new school year by distributing backpacks full of school supplies.

Last year, supplies were directly delivered to schools, who in turn, distributed them to students. This worked well for students and their families so we will continue to work to distribute these supplies through Des Moines Public Schools this year. However, we need your help in making sure that all students have what they need for success.

Gifts of $15 will supply one student with a backpack full of everything they need.

If you are interested in helping students prepare for the upcoming academic year, you can make checks payable to Central Presbyterian Church with “Back Packs – CROSS” in the memo line. Or contribute in Central’s online giving portal at www.dmcpc.org/give/ and indicate your donation should be used for Back Packs – CROSS Outreach. Thank you for your generosity.
