Jamie Wade Memorial Speaker Series

Tuesday, September 27, 7:00 PM, Sanctuary

This Tuesday, the Jamie Wade Memorial Speaker Series welcomes writer Beth Hoffman to Central to speak on her recent book Bet the Farm: The Dollars and Sense of Growing Food in America which chronicles this struggle through Beth's eyes as a beginning farmer.

It is a first-hand account of the perils of farming today and a personal exploration of more just and sustainable ways of producing food. She will be in conversation with longtime Des Moines Register columnist, Chuck Offenburger.

Following the event there will be a reception with refreshments in the East Parlor as well as a chance to have your copy of the book signed by Beth herself.

Pizza, Peeps, and Plans

Sunday, September 25, 6:00 PM, Room 5

Calling all High School youth! You are invited to join new Children's, Family and Youth Director Medea Saunders this Sunday in the Youth Room for an evening of pizza, introduction, and a chance to dream up and plan out what the upcoming year can look like!

Calling All Scotsmen (And Women)

This year on Reformation Sunday, October 30, the Worship Committee is planning to do something new at Central: celebrate the Scottish roots of our Presbyterian tradition. We have some special things planned for music and liturgy, drawing on our Scottish heritage. And we are looking for folks of Scottish background or ancestry within our congregation who might have an interest in participating in this service. Please contact Wallace Bubar at wbubar@dmcpc.org or 515-279-3658.

Church Office Hours

Monday–Thursday
8:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.,
Friday 8:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

To watch Central's worship service online Sunday morning, go to our Watch Live webpage.

Per Capita

Thanks so much to all of you who have paid the annual per capita assessment. That fee, assessed by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), goes to support the mission and administrative work of our denomination, both at the Presbytery, Synod, and General Assembly levels. If you are a church member and have not yet given, please do so. Just write a check for $45 for each member in your household, make it payable to Central Presbyterian Church, and designate "Per Capita" on the memo line. Or you can also pay online at <https://dmcp.org/give/> Thank you very much!

Fall Harvest Celebration

Sunday, October 9, 4:00 to 6:30 PM Connie Klug's & Paul Tavernier's Party Barn
Fun for all ages! Enjoy all the great activities you remember from previous years, including a cake walk, scavenger hunt, pumpkin catapulting, and a catered dinner.

This year, there are two things that will make the event even more exciting. Our featured entertainer is four-time Grammy nominee, singer-songwriter Justin Roberts. Justin grew up at Central, the son of Steve and Dawn Roberts. He is a professional musician in Chicago, who has enjoyed a wonderful career in the field of children's music (which adults also enjoy). Justin performs all over the country. His sixteenth album, Space Cadet, was released in July.

Dinner will be a prepackaged "box lunch" with a hot beef sandwich, mashed potatoes, apple salad and pumpkin pie. When you RSVP, be sure to let us know if you will need the adult meal (as listed above,) vegan substitute for the sandwich, or a children's meal of chicken tenders and mac 'n cheese.

We have chartered a 56-passenger bus to get you there and back should you need a ride. The bus will leave the church parking lot at 3:00 PM, and return at 7:15 PM. RSVP to Kimberly Sanford at 515-279-3658 or ksanford@dmcp.org.
